Around the Police Station

One of the changes made by Sheriff-elect Jarrett is not pleasing. It is said, to one member of the present force. Sergeant Moniz on the new list appears as a patrolman and is reported to be displeased with the order to remove his chevrons which he has worn for the past five months, and may resign.

Brown in Harness Again.

Prosecutions in the police court were handled yesterday by A. M. Brown, who returned from the coast on the Korea from his vacation. Among the cases was that of Philip Guerrero, a boy who stole $1.25 in cash from Mrs. Amy Akaka. The young fellow has the run of the house and took advantage of an opportunity to possess some of the lady's pin-money. She resented this and had the young fellow arrested. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year in the reform school, but has an eight weeks' probation.

Took Peculiar Vow.

Pio Mio, a Hawaiian, was sent to the asylum yesterday morning, making his second trip there in the last couple of years. When the monarchy was overthrown Pio Mio took a vow that he would not cut his hair again until the monarchy was restored. The years rolled by and instead of the islands being governed by a king or queen they changed into a territory of the United States, but still the man held to his vow. He brooded so much that he was finally committed to the asylum and his hair was cut for the first time since 1893. He was released but the mental disorder appeared again resulting in his recent detention at the station.

Wrong Man Arrested.

Paul Kane, arrested for assault and battery on a Chinaman, was not only discharged in police court yesterday, but it was established that he took no part in the assault. A witness whom Kane had called turned out to be the actual assailant and he was arrested in the court room, tried and found guilty. The real assailant was Tom Kaahue.

Flying Detective Force.

The appointment of a bicycle squad of special detectives by Sheriff-elect Jarrett is intended to fill a long-felt want, that of supplying the outer districts with a silent squad. These officers, using bicycles, and possibly running without lights, will have certain sections to cover through the night. It will be part of their duty to keep watch on gangs of hoodlums, who are annoying residents in various parts of town. Each section has its hoodlum gang. One of the worst is in Kalihi. Another had one recruits its numbers from Pauoa.

Luahiwa Gets Job.

Joseph Luahiwa, assistant chief of detectives under Chief Kalakiela at present, who is retired by Sheriff-elect Jarrett, was given a position yesterday by High Henry at Oahu prison. Although Luahiwa is entitled to remain on the detective force until January 4, he will resign at the end of the present month and take up his new duties under the High Sheriff on January 1.

EDWARD GETS TWO MORE BIG DIAMONDS

LONDON, December 12.—The two largest of the Cullinan diamonds, which were formally delivered to the king at Windsor on their return from being cut and polished at Amsterdam, have been placed among the crown jewels at the Tower, where, with the rest of the regalia, they may now be inspected by the public.

They are arranged close to the model of the Koh-i-noor, in contrast with which their enormous size is well shown, the smaller being nearly three times and the larger nearly five times greater than it is.

Their magnificent fire and brilliance are scarcely, however, exhibited to full advantage, since those responsible for putting them in position have not remembered that a brilliant is meant to be looked at with its table facing the observer, and have placed them so that their tables are turned downward, and, consequently, only their facets and the portions below their girdles are presented to view.

It is hoped that this mistake will be rectified and the public given the opportunity of seeing the faces of the stones instead of merely their backs.

It is understood that the intention is ultimately to mount the two brilliants, the one in the scepter and the other in the orb.
